

or reasonableness of any . . . order made by the commissioner. . . . Such petition shall be filed with the board no later than sixty days after the issuance of such . . . order.”

The orders sought to be reviewed were issued on March 28, 2012, and therefore, any petition for review filed with the Board after May 27, 2012, would be untimely (Board Rules of Procedure and Practice 66.3 [a], 65.5 and 65.3 [a]; [12 NYCRR 66.3 [a], 65.5 and 65.3 (a)]). As the petition in this proceeding was not received by the Board until October 29, 2012, in an envelope post-marked October 26, 2012, it was untimely.

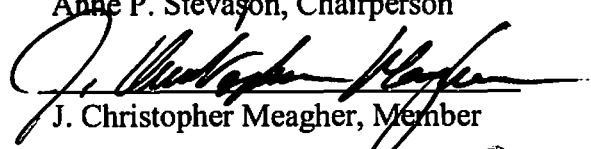

The petitioner filed an opposition to the motion that was received by the Board on February 14, 2013, however, aside from being late, it failed to offer any legally sustainable, or in fact any, explanation for his failure to file the petition in a timely manner.

NOW, THEREFORE, IT IS HEREBY RESOLVED THAT:

The Commissioner of Labor’s motion to dismiss the petition for review is granted in its entirety, and the petition for review be, and the same hereby is, dismissed.
