Opt In to Receive Service and Notice Electronically

Section 33 of the Labor Law permits a party to voluntarily opt in to receiving service and notice electronically rather than through the mail. You may opt in to receive service and notice of the proceedings in your case by filling out this form and submitting it with your petition. You may also email the form later using the Board's Guideline for Filing Correspondence Electronically. You are not required to opt in to receive service and notice electronically. If you do not opt in, you will continue to receive service and notice by mail.
